

One Soldier's Story

A Visionalist Entertainment Production

Hosted by Judge Michael Warren
September 13, 2011

Featuring
"One Soldier's Story"

A film about Sgt. Michael Ingram, Jr.

Uptown Birmingham Theatre
211 S. Old Woodward Ave.
Birmingham, MI 48009

"As a free people, we must preserve
our republic or it will perish.

Patriot Week renews America's spirit by celebrating the
First Principles, Patriots, documents, and flags that make America the greatest nation in world history."

Judge Michael Warren

7:15 pm

Welcome Greeting

Chuck Gaidica, WDIV-TV4
Master of Ceremonies

Judge Michael Warren speaks about the significance of 'Patriot Week.'

MSG Jeff Rector, Casualty Assistance Coordinator of the U.S. Army Reserves explains the meaning behind the posting of the colors.

Joe Salvia calls for posting of the colors.

Judge Warren leads the attendees in the 'Pledge of Allegiance.'

Keith Famie, director of "One Soldier's Story" speaks about the film.

Start of Film

Ticket required for admission. Please contact Erika at ebohnenstiehl@americanhouse.com or (248) 203-1800 ext. 228

Donations will be gratefully accepted at the theatre exit for Mikie's Minutes™ – a program that connects US soldiers serving in the field to loved ones at home with Free Pre-paid Calling Cards. Established to honor SGT Michael Ingram Jr., a fallen hero of the conflict in Afghanistan, Mikie's Minutes is only made possible through your generous contributions. To find out more, or contribute online please visit: www.MikiesMinutes.com

Enabling Soldiers to Call Home

Mikie's Minutes is a division of Others First, a 501c3 tax deductible non-profit organization.